

Hoff Insurance Joining Harvard Western Team

The employees and owners of Hoff Insurance Inc. are pleased to announce that they have joined the Harvard Western Insurance team, effective immediately.

Harvard Western Insurance is a Regina-based insurance brokerage with 5 locations and over 70 staff, and has served the local market for over 100 years.

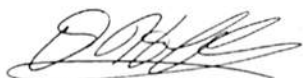

This decision was made with your best interest in mind. As your insurance broker, we know that having the best insurance products is important. Joining Harvard Western Insurance allows us to access a much larger variety of insurance companies and products, as well as a significantly larger team of specialists, to better meet your needs.

All members of our current team in each of our 4 locations will be staying on and we will continue to provide the excellent service and product knowledge that you rely on. We will continue to operate under the Hoff Insurance name in 2018, with plans to rebrand to Harvard Western Insurance in 2019.

We appreciate your support of our company over the years and we look forward to serving you in the years ahead.

If you have any questions or concerns please do not hesitate to contact myself or any of our staff at our 4 locations.

Sincerely,

Devon Hoff
